

My Transition Biography

Transition is when you move from one stage of life to another. For example, you are getting ready to transition from being a young person into an adult and from being a student into a worker.

What I might do...

What I did do...

What I learned...

How did I grow?